

ARTfactory COVID-19 Safeguards

On behalf of the Board of Directors and staff at the ARTfactory, we would like to thank you for your support and dedication to the ARTfactory and to the arts in our community. The arts industry is an economic driver and can serve to bring us together to celebrate life and face its challenges. The pandemic has been unlike anything that most of us have ever seen, and we have worked hard to find creative ways to continue to provide a meaningful artistic respite for you, our staff and all of our community.

As the world continues to change and we learn more, we will update our protocols as needed and do our best to provide a safe, relaxing, creative experience for each of you. To this end, we will continue to monitor and follow CDC guidelines and all local and state requirements.

In regards to our theatre performances, we will continue to monitor the protocols enacted by our fellow local theatre venues and will continue to coordinate our responses with them and update as warranted. Please refer to our website ticket page for each of our shows for updated protocols for each performance.

Thank you again for your support for over more than 35 years. We are all in this together and the ARTfactory is here for you.
